

MEETING WITH THE CHIEFS AFTER GRADUATION DAY ON JULY 8, 1967

SUBJECTS OF IMPORTANCE

YOUR TWO

and

SAND SWIMMING

NEVER FORGET THESE LESSONS
FROM THE CHIEFS. THERE ARE FEW THINGS IN LIFE THAT ARE
AS IMPORTANT AS THESE LESSONS
THE ONLY THING THAT I CAN THINK OF THAT IS MORE IMPORTANT IS THAT YOU KNOW JESUS GOD'S SON

Long ago, in the life time of our Grandmother 10 All but when she was still young, long ago before her uncle torched the village prompting Mother 10 All to escape with all the children that were in her care, long before they lived in the caves in the sand hills of western Nebraska, long ago but after she had been kidnapped by her uncle and sold into slavery to an Apache village where her life's mission really started, long ago but after her husband had died and she refused to ever again go by the name that her parents had given her. From then on she was named for the purpose that she had, caring for the children that had been placed in her care. In this time in the life of Mother 10 All she was happy but in reality she was a slave but her masters respected her so much that they came to her for advice on many occasions, the chiefs of tribes all around cared greatly for her and the people of the village loved her and trusted her completely. She did not feel like a slave. She had lead many of the people, including one chief to believe in Jesus as their savior even through for some strange reason there was a rule against telling the children about Jesus until they came of age which for most of her children that age was fourteen but Mother 10 All was in charge of many children that were mentally challenged so their true age was not really definable. They were fourteen when Mother 10 All said they were. As Mother 10 All aged she came to be called Grandmother 10 All but that is far past the point in time I want to tell you about at this time.

There came a time when all the villages of our tribes of Indians even far away from their village, all arranged to have a meeting with the chiefs of all those tribes and it was a big celebration, it was at the time of graduation so most of the festivities were for those children that had recently celebrated their fourteenth birthdays. Challenging Ideas were being shown, sort of a talent show, the contests were to show who in the tribes could make the most unusual devices, either for showing new ways of preserving food better or methods for trapping animals in various ways and also items using furs, organs, bones and antlers of the many animals that were hunted for food, and of course contests showing the tastiest ways of preparing various meals. The contests were judged by the chiefs of each tribe and then those items from each tribe were judged again to pick the three best and then one best of ALL was picked from those three best. Mother 10 All wanted do her group's presentation first because she had seen a great variety of items brought into her life by the children that have come into her care but she did not have any children that were of the age required to bring a group of children to the celebration. The oldest child in her care was only thirteen but mentally most of her children were around ten years old. This is officially how she got the name Mother 10 All but she prefers a different reason for her name.

The organizers decided that they would have some festivities for younger children so that they would not be left out but not really thinking that one of them especially not one from the mentally challenged group could be the winner since usually the older children would have more opportunity for learning. Loretta, rather Mother ALL, registered all ten of her children as ten years old so everyone could see how they were all doing. When the leaders called her group forward they asked for Loretta and her ten year olds to come forward to have there items judged. Loretta explained that she no longer goes by the name her parents gave her. They asked what were they to call her, she said, everybody around me always call me Mother, the children are my life so they are who I am around the most." So when they called for her group they said, "Mother and her 10 year olds", Mother 10 All stopped them again and said, but they are not all ten years old but I classified into this group because that is who they are to me. So the leaders called out, "Okay then, Mother 10 and All her children come on up Mother 10 ALL, you can show us your items now”, the name stuck but there are other reasons for her name that I will explain later. They presented a lot of very unique and useful items that the children had helped Mother 10 All to make but the winner of all was the Potty Robe (see book four, the Potty Robe) even though no body was willing to show how it worked, an explanation was enough to greatly impress the judges.

Everyone that received an award was invited to a very important meeting with the chiefs. This meeting was one of greatest importance because it was to explain something two things that could not be made into an item but was of the most important things that you could ever have in your entire life other than Jesus but the chiefs were not ready to except that. The first of the two was a very special person in your life called your TWO and the second was a special skill that was easy to do but very dangerous and should only be done when you are with your TWO because it is important to have someone with you that you trust with your life whenever you go Sand Swimming, a great fun pastime originally learned by watching gophers dig their tunnels.

What is taught in the meeting was only information that was taught by the chiefs because it is a very strictly kept secret that is only supposed to be allowed to be known by the Indian people and the only way an outsider would learn of it is if a person that is not an Indian were privileged enough to become the TWO of an Indian, as myself, the author of this book, I am the TWO of Tommy Crazy Dog and yes I am very privileged indeed. The chief's did tell me that I have permission to write about this subject so it is okay for me to share this long kept secret but since I am the first allowed to do so I feel greatly strange in my emotions as I share this. There is more here than most people will understand so I really hope I explain it well since it is so important to me and all my Indian friends.

The following is what I learned from Tommy Crazy Dog, my TWO when I was only ten years old and he was fourteen. Later he told me that I had it written well but I still am not sure I do it full justice but I will try to write it as Tommy told it to me as he recalled it being told to him by the chief in the group long ago when he was around nine years old at a great event held to honor the new graduates in the tribe. So here is what I was told about being a TWO and Sand Swimming. Here I will mostly talk about your TWO but will tell you another story later and will explain more about Sand Swimming then.

This point is beyond being friends. This is beyond hating or loving a person. This is beyond saying that they are family. This is even beyond being all of our families and our heritage. You must know it is beyond all that when you go into the sand go as two, always and you come out of the sand as two even if one of you is not breathing you still return as two from the sand.

You must understand and agree to this or just do not ever go back into the sand no matter how good of a sand swimmer you are. You all must agree to be TWO and if you come out with only the two bodies and one of your spirits is left trapped then the families or the whole of the tribe will help to release that trapped spirit.

You must always remember who is your NEXT (a sort of secret friend given at birth, you can pick your own TWO but you parents pick your NEXT) but you do not talk to each other about them being your NEXT unless they are needed. If somehow you do come out of the sand as only one you must take your NEXT back to the spot that you last saw your other half and your NEXT and their other half must work together, all three of you to find your other half, your TWO.

This other half I speak of is not your wife or your husband, this other half is more than your best friend, even if you are enemies, you are TWO, yes your wife also is your other half but your TWO must be even set before you wife and you must then also understand that your wife has a TWO that must be this important to her as well even if this TWO is a man. She must never be sexual with her TWO and you must never be sexual with your TWO, one exception would be if you become married to your TWO but then you must find another TWO just as if your TWO had died and your new spouse must help you find a new TWO. You must all find a way to trust each other and ALL get along, sometimes with avoiding each other if needed but if one needs their TWO then they must help always.

So wives and husbands get it straight before you are married, you both have a TWO and they must be put first or life will fail. Without a TWO someone will be trapped, if one of you is trapped in the sand and can not be found you must go to their family so that they can go where the body is so they can be together and ALL as a whole release the trapped spirit from the sand so that they have a chance to reunite with the fallen body.

It sometimes happens but not very often that the body and spirit will reunite immediately but if not at least when the body releases the spirit it can be united to the body in the future at the resurrection of the body someday.

If you lose a TWO, if by death or by approved mutual split you must find another TWO after a time of only one moon. Do not dwell long without a TWO (your TWO is more than a friend even if an enemy, your TWO is most important) if you are married ask your spouse to take you to a Split TWO meeting and help you pick a TWO for you because your spouse knows you better than even you know yourself and you need desperately to have a TWO.

This is more important than any other part of your life, again except for Jesus, but not everyone can understand that. This is almost as important as being ready for your death. If you are not ready for death you need to find a man of Spiritual knowledge to get that straight even before you focus on finding a TWO because if you are lost forever in death your TWO will do you little good then. That is when you most need to know Jesus. I wish everyone knew that truth!

If you will follow this rule strictly you will swim the sands safely for a lifetime and enjoy a long and fun life. Please, do learn this lesson well. But of even of more importance you need to learn about Jesus, He died for you so you do not have to die for yourself. I hope you learn that lesson before your life ends!
